WITH OUR BOYS IN SERVICE

The most enjoyable news received from Pfc. Phil Kearney since he left for the South Pacific more than two years ago was received by his parents this week when he said "Don't write me here, because I'll be home before any letter you write reaches me." He passed up a chance for promotion to come home but believes it more than worth it. "We're a lot a tired guys heading home, but we are lucky. There are so many tired ones who must endure the climate, the hardships, the separations and the risk for who knows how many more months. This place is a hot, dusty hillside far from running water. The food is scarcely adequate and there is precisely nothing to do except read the books we happened to bring along and stand in line to share the necessities of life provided. But it wonderful for we are going away from it this time. Self pity is not a wise mood for him who would be healthy and happy and not a mood I indulge, but I want to remember what a job it has been after I get back as long as others are still in it."

Technician Fifth Class Yell Nobles wrote a most descriptive letter to local friends from France and told of the uneventful passage across. He was particularly interested in Scotland, with the old stone houses and fences, green country side and generally tidy appearance, but wondered if it looked better to him because it was his first glimpse of solid earth after the expanse of water for so long. War damage to property in France is evident, he said, but in his opinion the Parisian beauty is a myth. Apparently there is no shortage of beef, milk and butter but the Frenchmen do not know how to cook a steak and so-called French fried potatoes as done in the good old USA. Nobles tried his limited French vocabulary on a native and after he had struggled to ask a simple question the fellow answered in perfect English. Yell spent his birthday which occurred last month, sitting in a pup tent, thinking of other years. With the progress being made he is hopeful of seeing local friends soon.

Charlie Pierce, Jr. has written to his parents to advise them that he is in a rotation camp anxiously waiting his turn on a ship bound homeward from the New Guinea area. Like Phil Kearney, Charlie has been in the Pacific war zones for over two years and the trip home will be a welcome reward.

Signalman Second Class Bob Leamon wrote home that his boat battled the "bad weather" which recently struck the south and east Atlantic Seaboard. It was such rough waving that Bob says he is now allergic to water after three years of every type of sea going and fighting. While on shore recently, the signalman substituted in a bowling tournament rolling the balls for a high winning score.

Ernest Fleming, AMM First Class who is on an emergency leave because of the recent death of his father at Fallon, Nevada, visited with local friends en route last Friday. Ernest looks fit and has now been in the navy five years. He expects soon to become a chief petty officer. When peace comes he plans to continue world traveling while working for a well known airline ocmpany.

An air-mail letter dated August 21 from somewhere in the Pacific arrived this week from our former printer's devil, HA First Class George Keetch. George reported that he is a ward corpsman in the hospital on one of the "rocks" in the Pacific. "The wards are tents with coral gravel for decks and canvass cots for beds," George wrote. "However the surgical wards are much better, having wooden decks and being screened in. I ought to know they're a lot better because I was in one after I had my appendix out several weeks ago. In my ward we have everything from foot ailment to malnutrition, which is rare out here in spite of no fresh meat and dehydrated foods, which don't help your appetite any. There is scuttlebutt going around that the army is getting fresh meat. I don't know how true it is though." George likes to compare the army and navy medical staffs and of course is loud in his praise for the latter. George believes that Augie Sassarini was on the same "rock" at the time the letter was written.

Cpl. Raymond Barton, son of Mr and Mrs. Fred Barton of Brockway sent home flags and other souvenirs from Holland where he took part in the invasion as a medical paratrooper. Ray has really seen some action with his air borne comrades.

We know that at least two Truckee boys and likely several more took an active part in the return to the Philippines last week. The ones we are sure of are Lt. (j.g.) Geno Guidi and Gunner's Mate Billy Waters. Their ship did sterling work in the invasion, according to reports.

WAR CHEST DRIVE IS NEARING END HERE

Chairman T. T. Buell, president of the Rotary Club, which this year is sponsoring the annual War Chest Fund drive, announced yesterday that the drive will be concluded this week with women of the Wyethia Club occupying booths at the post office and Bank of America to accept last-minute contributions.

Anyone who has not already subscribed to this worthy cause, or any one who wishes to increase his donation will have the opportunity on Friday and Saturday when the women will accept contributions.

That the drive in this district will go over the top in a big way was indicated by Buell's report that of the $1,176 quota, $1,045 has already been contributed with the balance of the week to go and several organizations yet to report. The Donner Summit area, under the leadership of committeemen D. W. Bowen and Art Couilliard, reported apporximately $200 raised there.

RESORT MAN URGES LOCAL PROMOTION

The Lake Tahoe and Truckee areas should start planning now for the certain post war influx to resort centers, if they are to compete with other similar regions for this business Glenn Greene, resident-manager of Tahoe Tavern warned the Truckee Lions Club at their meeting here last night.

Speaking as the guest of Norman Mayfield, Greene urged the club to support the building of a proposed airport near here, the completion of the Tahoe City-Brockway highway at the lake and other projects to make the region more acceptable to the tourist.

Greene gave an interesting summary of the guest register at the Tavern, ocmparing 1943 to 1944 and emphasizing the percentage of guests from various parts of the country. It was interesting to note that the percentage from southern California increased from 8 to 14 per cent this year.

Greene also proposed that efforts be made to increase the length of the season from June through October.

Storm In Region Ends Danger Of Fires In Forests

Only Small Fires Occurred In Truckee District This Summer

With .92 of an inch of rain at Truckee and snow on the high ranges on October 31, the dry season has been sufficiently broken in this area to discontinue the use of fire lookouts and suppression crews, according to District Forest Ranger H. I. Snider.

While the fire season was rather long and many local foresters were sent to aid in suppressing large fires in other forsest, the Truckee district had only 15 man made fires, Snider reported and nine lightning fires, all of which were less than an acre in size, except two lightning fires, one covering nine acres and the other one and a half acres.

The man made fires were classified as follows: 8 smokers; 2 campfires; 1 house burned; I children playing with matches; 1 railroad; 1 refuse burning and 1 magnifying sun rays through glass.

Permits to burn brush and other debris will still be required until December 1, Snider said.

The 1944 presidential elections will soon be a matter of history. Radio programs will be strangely, and we might add, agreeably, different. Newspapers will again return to reporting the news, or at least as much of the news as censorship permits, and the movie actors and actresses, we most sincerely hope, will return to their chosen work of acting and stop trying to be politicians. If there has been anything about this political campaign which has griped us more than the mud slinging on both sides, the unforgivable reams of scarse paper, wasted in attemps to persuade readers to support this or that issue or candidate, it was the hammish politicians collected at random from Hollywood's movie colony to read some ghost writer's idea of a speech. Actors and politicians have widely separted professions, each sufficient enough in itself that one should not attempt encoachment upon the other. Actors do have one thing on their side in the matter, however, and that is the fact that in some instances politicians, in high places, do a nifty job of acting when the occasion demands.

There are some rather controversial propositions on the election ballot this year and it behooves every voter going to the polls to make a careful study of them before voting. There can be no argument against No. 1, the veterans' bond issue and No. 2, 3, 5, 6, 7 and 10 are all in the safe "yes" vote column. No. 4 provides for tax exemption on all religious, hospital and charitable institutions. We believe there is plenty of property now tax exempt in the state and that this measure should be defeated. No. 8 is optional in our opinion as is No. 9. No. 11 by all means should be decisively defeated so that another law of this kind will never be proposed. It is dangerous to our present liberal pension laws and could work undue hardship upon even small taxpayers who would be required to file and pay a gross income tax monthly. No. 12 also should be defeated as it contains clauses which are a direct attempt to undermine organized labor. Don't take our word for these suggestions—study the issues themselves and be guided accordingly.

Gene Barton writes this week from Memphis, Tennessee, where he is still piloting a transport ship. He says he flew cargo under the ATC for some time mostly to Miami, Florida, transporting a lot of returning military personnel, including some generals.

Gene, a former Truckee resident says his company is flying twice the prewar mileage and that he has been on a commerical run between Chicago and Miami with one stop at St. Louis. While on military contract they flew many tons of all kind of cargo and had some unusual experiences. They averaged about 100 hours a month and covered about 16,000 miles during that time.

CHIMNEY FIRE AT HOME OF HEATHS

Dolley said he did not determine what caused the fire, but said the loss would not be great. The place was used as sleeping quarters for a man known locally as "Cooky."

THE MAN AT THE KEYHOLE

by OPERATIVE WB

If perchance you like to figure political odds on the basis of past performances, here's the record: California since acquiring statehood, has participated in 23 presidential elections. In terms of popular vote, the state has gone Republican 14 times, Democratic 8 and Progressive once. And California is noted for close contests. There have been six photo-finish presidential races in this state—one in 1880 being decided by the slim margin of 78 votes.

Election scandals may make the headlines in California next Tuesday our spy advises. Thousands of voters are known to have registered illegally—and investigators are gathering the evidence!

If by chance, Proposition No. 11 (the billion-dollar pension scheme) slips by with voter approval, our operative reports that initiative petions will be ciruculated within 30 days to repeal it. State financial experts say the rosy pension program if allowed to become operative, would turn everything a deep red, including the state treasury.

TAHOE LETTER

To the Service Men

From SWANEE

October 30, 1944

Dear Tahoeites:

I write you this week on Monday morning as clouds hang heavy overhead and a light rain falls. Saturday climaxed the glory of our Tahoe Autumn which this year exceeded the fondest hopes of every lover of Moth er Nature. Everywhere one turned his eyes there appeared an ever lovelier picture, with mounutain aspen a luscious combination of yellows, oranges and reds as they nestled close to the stately evergreens which gave their autumn beauty greater depth and a more marked contrast. But late Saturday the sun disappeared and before long thunder and lightning heralded the arrival of a heavy shower.

Tahoe in general appears quiet and rather deserted these fall days. With the many summer residents gone back to their homes only the natives carry on. Local contractors are busy with remodeling jobs and inside decorating and gardeners are planting for next year's lfower beds.

Curt Stoddard is home for a visit after waiting for some time for a call to active duty in the navy. He enlisted recently and is back for a short visit before being called.

Have several notes of interest which were gathered last week, one in the form of a very pleasant surprise mailed from Pasadena. It was the announcement of the wedding on Saturday, October 21, in that city of Theodore Sproule Cope, Lt. (j.g.) in the navy, to Miss Elizabeth Ann Nettleton. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eugene Nettleton of Pasadena. Ted is one of Tim Butler's boys who spent many of his earlier summers at Tahoe Tavern. All of us Tahoeites join in wishing him and his bride good luck and happy days ahead.

Kay Starratt with the Red Cross in far-away India, last week wrote her mom that she had met Cpl. Leslie Atherton, son of the Weller Athertons of Tahoe in India. It was a grand and glorious occasion for both of them, sort of a "Gee, but it's great to meet a friend from your home town" feeling. Les had secured Kay's APO number somewhere and when he finally reached her part of India he lost no time in contacting her. It was California Night at the canteen while he was there on his two-day visit and he and Kay were ceretainly the candy kids for the one night at least, giving Lake Tahoe a grand bit of world-wide advertising. Kay says Les looked fine but like the other boys from the states stationed in those parts, found the climate kept them a little thinner than usual. Les is temporarily stationed in the western part of India.

And now will share with you a letter which I have been saving for several weeks until I had space. It came from one of my favorite peopel Lt. James Easton, whose last letters were sent from a Staten Island hospital. for some time I had not heard from Jim and half expected he had been returned to sickbay for another operation. It was a relief to have his grand seven-page letter, assuring me that not only was every thing shipshape but that he was again back in active duty and —an acting Lieutenant Commander! This, Jim assures me, is not only quite an honor but it has given him the greatest pleasure and gratification. He does not actually have the commission yet but it's "just as good." He is now in full charge of all personnel and all activities and responsible to the skipper only. His new assignment was a better tonic than any furlough or operation could possibly have been. Among his latest acquisitions are beautiful and spacious quarters, the privilege of eating at the captain's table, no more watches or extra duty and best of all the opportunity to run the ship as he wishes, with an opportunity to try out all his pet theories, formulated through past years of training. If he makes good it will mean permanent assignment to the higher grade. He is getting his Sierra Sun regularly now. he says, and certainly appreicates keeping up on the home town news. He also appreciates the snaps I sent and is pastin gthem on a special page of his scrapbook. While on Long Island he celebrated another birthday (was it the 25th or 25th, Jim?) and bought himself a birthday present with a future. It was a German Boxer pup, now four and a half months old, who answers to the name of Graf. Wilfmar von Uvacher Wasserfall, nicknamed Wulf. When grown the pup will weigh aroung 85 pounds. Jim sends best wishes and congratulations to Sgt. Billie Bechdolt, sks for Joe Pomin's address and wants to know if Edna Wheat is engaged as reported. He sends best regards to his many friends in the Truckee-Tahoe area. I'll be glad to send along his new address to anyone requesting same.

Promised a few anecdotes from Donnie Prusso's letter so here goes: "In boot camp had quite a time—being small, I was always at the end of the line and acquired the unholy nickname of Feather Merchant!—was half starved by the time I got to chow. The clothing problem was the worst—got tired running back and hopping into my shoes after every 'Forward, March!'—and at the end of the line they added insult to injury by giving me an application card for Troop 64 of the Boy Scouts of America—had me cut the pants off just above the waist to make them fit and was the only marine in the outfit who could do an 'About, Face!' and finish with his shoes on backward. Wren classified asked for radio since this branch has no limits as long as you are high enough to read the dials—so that's exactly what I got. Walked into a ten-day furlough at boot camp but it made me mad when they asked me what troop of Boy Socuts I was with. Radio school was pretty good, but nerve-wracking:my dreams were haunted by dits and dahs. Finally moved to Camp Pendleton and was staked out in Little Tokio. After passing an 89 per cent and receiving my red and green Pfc. stripes. There fell heir to 30 days mess duty and peeled enough spuds to spread the peeling seven times to the Sun and to Jupiter and Saturn too. The galley seated around 3,000 men and three of us peeled all the vegetables and spuds three times a day, seven days a week. The trip across the pond was nice with railed lined constantly and movies filled the evenings. Saved the last of my letter to ask that you add my name to the list of those who read and really enjoy your letter to the servicemen which mom sends each week. Give my best regards to all the Tahoeites.

Mrs. Stella Watson in charge of the War Chest drive reports that up to Sunday a total of $767.50 was on hand with more expected.

Leave you for another week and can report this much regarding son Jimmie who went to the Reno Air Base last week for his examinations for air corps enlisted reserve. He pas sed with 94 per cent, mental and physical. So far so good. This week we go for another interview.

Hope this finds you all right in the pink and that good luck, good cheer and good health be your constant companions. The best of everything from the folks at home and God bless you always. As ever,

SWANEE.

ANSWER TO MAYO'S OPEN LETTER

Dishonest Campaigning

(Red Bluff Daily News Editorial)

Jesse M. Mayo, candidate for congress from the second district, bought advertising space in many newspapers, including The Red Bluff Daily News, to print an "Open Letter to Hon. Clair Engle."

We quote one sentence from that paid political announcement:

"On January 26, 1944, you were one of 33 congressmen who voted AGAINST the final enactment of the $300 mustering out pay law for discharged service men and women."

* * * *

The advertisement contains many other statements which are distortions of facts or deliberate untruths. But let us look into this one statement to analyze the nature of the campaign which Mayo is conducting.

The Congressional Record shows that on January 19 Rep. Engle voted in favor of the house of representativss' version of the mustering out pay bill. The bill provided for $500 mustering out pay.

In the senate, the pay was cut to $350, and the bill went to a conference of senators and representatives where the differences between the two versions of the measure were ironed out. The conference, however, did a remarkable thing. It cut the pay to $300—lower that the figure set by either the senate or the house.

Each branch of congress must vote on a conference report. Engle voted against the reduction in the mustering out pay—along with 102 other members of the house. He favored the $500 figure for which he previously had voted.

However, Mayo distorts the facts in the case in an attempt to show that Engle was opposed to the bill when our congressman voted a protest against a reduction in pay given discharged veterans.

Engle's position had the support of leaders of the American Legion and other veterans' organizations.

As another example of Mayo's disregard for truth and honesty, he charges that Engle "did not participate in securing the enactment" of the GI Bill of Rights.

As a matter of fact, Engle is a member of the house committee which voted out the bill with a recommendation that it pass and he spent many days hearing testimony on t. On the final passage of the bill, on May 18, Engle is recorded for the measure.

* * * *

If Mayo were a green country boy you might understand his statement. You might give him the benefit of a doubt, the possibility that he had made an honest mistake.

But he has not made an honest mistake. He has been in the legislature long enough to know the procedure of legislation, and a glance at the record shows that Engle voted for the servicemen in every instance. Mayo is guilty of a deliberate, dishonest misstatement.

* * * *

There is no need to examine the other distortions of Mayo. Rep. Engle has been the aggressive supporter of the farmer, the stockman, the gold miner, the lumber people and all other interests in his district. We go into detail in this one example to show the nature of the man who wants to beat our congressman.

Our guess is that such tactisc will backfire against the man who uses them.

TELEPHONE COMPANY HAS NEW SNOW PLANE FOR TAHOE LINES THIS YEAR

TAHOE CITY, Nov. 2.— Charles Spaulding of the local telephone company this week brought glad tidings for those who are destined to spend the winter months in the lake area.

No one as yet has received any information as to whether the highways between Tahoe City and Meeks Bay will remain open this winter. If it does not, as in the past two years, snowbound residents will be glad to know that a means of conveyance will be available in emergencies in the possession of the new snow-plane which Spaulding says has been provided by the company for the use of employes in checking lines during and after severe storms. It is equipped with a propellor such as those used in training planes and has three skis, one in front and one on either side and carries three passengers.

STNLEY MARTIN FETED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY AT TAHOE

TAHOE CITY, Nov. 2.— Mrs. Stanley Martin entertained at a special party honoring the 9th birthday of her son, Stanley, Jr., at the family home near town. Only discouraging note of the day was the rainstorm which threatened to destroy the colorful decorations on the tables which had been set out of doors. A last minute rush prevented this and the party proceeded in the house.

Two large birthday cakes and ice cream were the centers of interest and games were enjoyed.

Among the guests were Clifford and Robert Dockham, Myra Lee Pollitt, Bobbie and Mary Ann Tonini of Truckee, Robert and Roger Hursey of Tall Pines, Lewis ellows of Carnelian Bay, John and Stephanie Firpo of Lake Inn, Howard Carnell and Sammy Lee Carroll. Older guests included Mrs. May Forsythe of Reno, Mrs. Otis Hursey, Mrs. Firpo, Mrs. Leon Dockham and Mrs. Elden Tonini, who with her children were the weekend guests of the Martins.

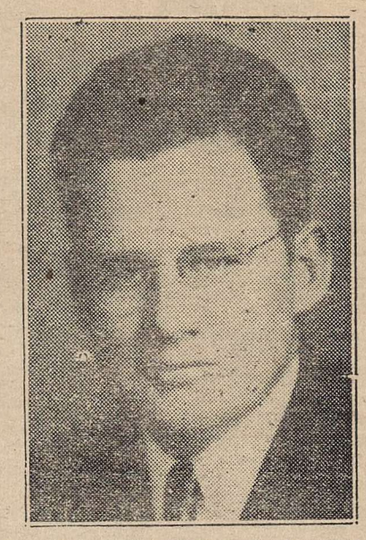
ON HIS RECORD KEEP CLAIR ENGLE IN CONGRESS



NEWSPAPERS PRAISE ENGLE'S RECORD

The voters . . . best can serve themselves and their district and their country by marking their ballots for . . . Engle.
—Sacramento Bee

He is able, aggressive, intelligent, open minded. We believe he has been a good Congressman. —Redding Record.

Clair Engle's voting record is clean cut and independent—he follows no clique or group, but "calls them as he sees them." That is the type of Representative we want. —Placer Herald

Congressman Engle is committed to fight for the best interests of his district and our nation—and from his record in the past you can be sure he will do his aggressive and ntelligent best. —Red Bluff Daily News.

For the benefit of the district . . . Engle should be returned to Congress. —Corning Observer

. . . . Congressman Clair Engle's record is really remarkable for activity and accomplishment and wears the nonpartisan label. His one aim has been to improve the industrial welfare of his district regardless of the politics of those he is aiding.
—California Mining Journal.

By personal knowledge this is what we say of the campaign of Clair Engle, a man doing a splendid job of representing OUR district. Hard- working and sincere, Engle is not a politician, but a Representative. His endorsers are his own people—not someone from the south end of the state, or from San Francisco . . He has been truly representative and we have every reason to belive he will continue so to be.

State Chamber of Commerce Raps No. 12

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 10 (U.P.)— A statement reaffirming opposition of the California State Chamber of Commerce to the "right to work" amendment, No. 12 on the November 7 ballot this year, was released today over the signature of Harrison S. Robinson of Oakland, president.

He pointed out the State-wide business group announced its opposition at Los Angeles meetings on two previous occasions before the amendment qualified for the ballot. One was April 14, the other June 23, and the reaffirmation was given by the board of directors at Sacramento last Friday, Robinson said.

Robinson added:
"In view of public statements made by others in which the position of the chamber has been misinterpreted, the chamber desires to be on record that it is opposed to compulsory union membership as a condition of employment, but recognizes the right of employes to contract voluntarily as they see fit.

"While in disagreement as to the wisdom of the measure (No. 12), we do not question the good faith of the proponents.

Grave dangers lurk in the wording of No. 12. This measure comes as a wartime attack on war production. It threatens chaos now and in the post war world. No. 12 threatens the security of every wage earner. Let's join with all our might in opposing un-American No. 12. As a leading editor warns, it "threatens civil war in California". STATE HAS WORST FIRE FIRE RECORD IN HISTORY

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 2.— (UP)— The state division of forestry experienced one of the worst September fire records in its history, M. B. Pratt, state forester, reported to Gov. Earl Warren today.

The trouble started in August, he said, spoiling an excellent 1944 record that had been maintained to August 1. Although on the latter date only 79,883 acres had been blackened this year, compared with 248,910 during an equivalent period in 1943, the total for 1944 on October 1 had reached 397,733 acres, Pratt said.

In 1943 the October total was 387,796 acres.

This year's efforts of the division were complicated when fires broke out simultaneously in many parts of the state, the forester added.

Eagles Lodge Group Boosts Sen. Mayo

Senator Jesse M. Mayo, Republican candidate for Congress in the Second District, has received a letter dated October 4, 1944, from George Duddy, State secretary, Fraternal Order of Eagles, expressing the fraternity's appreciation for his work in the State Legislature over a period of 12 years in behalf of the old-age pension laws of California.

Senator Mayo as chairman of the Senate Committee on Welfare and Institutions, sponsored the present $50 per month pension law in California. He also made two trips to Washington, D. C., at the request of the State Senate and Governor Warren to seek better Federal treatment for pensioners in this state.

The letter follows:

"It is with pleasure that I advise you that the Fraternal Oorder of Eagles at its annual State convention held in San Francisco this year representing 60,000 members, adopted a resolution commending you for your ardent support of their old age security program during your many years in the Legislature.

"It is my hope that you may use this resolution through the medium of the press and through the members of our fraternity, as well as the aged people of the state, to secure the support to which you are entitled for pour services rendered on behalf of the old people of the State of California. You may rest assured that the Fraternal Order of Eagles is not unmindful of the recent support received from you at the last session of the Legislature, and I am sure they recognize the service you have rendered."

NONE EXEMPT FROM HIGH GROSS INCOME TAX IN PROPOSITION NUMBER 11

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 2.— Every resident of California will be forced to pay three income taxes, one to the federal government, and two to the state government, if Proposition No. 11 is approved at Tuesday's election, Howard J. Reamer of Clarksburg pointed out in a statement today. This measure, he stated would impose a 3 percent gross income on every person residing in Californnia and there would be no exemptions or deductions allowed.

"Existing federal and state income taxes," Reamer said, " make some allowance for the obligations of the taxpayer before the tax is imposed. These include personal exemptions, credits for dependents and certain deductions which are intended to make the tax actually imposed bear some relation to the taxpayer's ability to pay. The gross income tax proposal in Proposition No. 11 however, elvies a 3 per cent tax, payable monthly, on every cent of income the individual receives."

SUPPORT OF TRUCKEE SCHOLL UP 76 PER CENT

State support per pupil for the Truckee elementary school district is almost double—up 76 per cent—what it was in 1932-33, California Taxpayers' association stated today continuing its analysis of the need for the 33 1-3 per cent increase in state aid for elementary school districts, proposed in Proposition No. 9.

In 1932-33, state support for the elementary school districts was increased from $30 per pupil to $60, with the transfer of the county's share of school support to the state in passage of the Riley-Stewart constitutional amendment.

In 1943, the legislature by statute increased aid to $66 per pupil.

This year, state aid for the local school district averages $57.16 per pupil, a total of $4,001 for the 70 pupils in average daily attendance on which the aid is based, the association found. In 1932-33 state support averaged $32.50, a total of $2,569 for the 79 pupils on which the aid that year was based.

If your car has hypoid gears, pressures against gear teeth sometimes skyrocket to thousands of pounds per square inch. That's potential trouble if you haven't a gear lubricant built to take those pressures. Each type of transmission and differential requires a special lubricant, designed for its particular problems. Save trouble, repair bills—ask your Standard Man which of these you should use:

RPM GEAR LUBRICANT (COMPOUNDED)

For all transmissions and differentials (hypoids excepted) . . . minimizes wear, resists sludging, foaming, corrosion.

RPM GEAR OIL

For truck transmissions and rear axles that require an uncompounded gear oil . . . built for extra hard duty, resists foaming.

RPM HYPOID LUBRICANT

Specially compounded to give extra protection against extreme hypoid pressures in trucks or cars.

ZEROLENE GEAR OIL

A straight mineral oil for lubrication of gears that do not require an extreme-pressure type of lubricant.
